

June 2024

Startle: What is it and how it effects your performance

Article Summary

The psychology behind startle and surprise, how our mind processes it and what we can do to come out the other side safely

Click here to read more

Article Summary

Pilots unhappy with an approach can choose the option of a go-around however the action can carry “a bit of a stigma” why is that? and what can we do?

Click here to read more

Runway Excursions: How to reduce the risk

Article Summary

Small altitude adjustments on business aviation flights could make a big difference in the environmental impacts of contrails

Click here to read more

Adjust Altitudes of 50 Flights – Reduce Environmental Impact by 50%

Article Summary

Climate activists are blocking access to Farnborough Airport to protest against the increasing use of private jets and to call on the government to ban private jets, tax frequent flyers and make polluters pay.

Click here to read more

Climate Activists Blockade Private Jet Airport

June 2024

Human Factors: CAA Action Plan

Article Summary

The CAA publish their strategy for Human Factors in Civil Aviation. The plan supports the revised strategy “protecting people, enabling aerospace”

Click here to read more

Article Summary

A Trans Air Boeing 737 operating a flight for Air Senegal veered off the runway during take-off in Dakar

Click here to read more

737 Veers Off Runway

What is Lower Airspace Radar Service

Article Summary

Flying season is now well underway, Take a look at some of the services that are available to pilots. A LARS controller provides advice and useful information for the safe and efficient conduct of flight

Click here to read more

Article Summary
A flight characteristic to which all types of single rotor helicopters can be susceptible to. Take a look at the What, Whys and How's in dealing with this unexpected occurrence

Click here to read more

Unanticipated Yaw

